

Admission Policies and Requirements

1. New First year Students:
 - a. ATCU (GSA) score of 474, and when ranked belong to the top 300;
 - b. High School general average of 80.00% or above;
 - c. Certificate of good moral character;
 - d. Physically and mentally fit;
 - e. Marriage Certificate, for married students;
 - f. Below 50 years old (present birth certificate); and
 - g. Pass the entry interview.

2. Transferees from other schools:
 - a. ATCU (GSA score is 474);
 - b. Weighted Percentage Average (WPA) of 85.00% from the last semester attended;
 - c. Below 50 years old (present photocopy of birth certificate);
 - d. The following nursing subjects should be taken in ADZU:
 - i. Nursing Theoretical Foundation;
 - ii. Nursing Health Assessment;
 - iii. all Nursing Care Management subjects;
 - iv. Botany 205;
 - v. Zoology 205; and
 - vi. other related nursing subjects like: Nutrition, Pathophysiology, Pharmacology, and Nursing Research, except those from Level III Accredited Schools.
 - e. A grade of 1.5 (80.00%) for the following: Math 101, Chemistry 101 and 204, Physics 111; and
 - f. Pass the oral interview.

3. Shiftees from other programs in ADZU:
 - a. ATCU (GSA score of 474);
 - b. Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.0 (WPA) of 83.00% from the last semester attended;
 - c. Below 50 years old (present photocopy of birth certificate); and
 - d. Pass the interview.

Note: To earn an Ateneo diploma, 75% of the total number of units must be taken in ADZU.

If a student is found to be physically or mentally unfit, the school has the right to refuse admission.

I. Physical handicaps include:

- a. Speech and hearing disturbances;

- b. Legal blindness;
- c. Motor-sensory disturbances;
- d. Deformed extremities or any part of the body;
- e. Activity intolerance (ischemia);
- f. Seizures/Convulsions; and
- g. Heart/Brain/Spinal Cord disorders or conditions of any vital organ.

II. (+) for Hepatitis B, HIV-AIDS;

III. Psychological and psychiatric problems/ conditions*; and

IV. Actual conditions (seizures, convulsions; heart, brain, and spinal cord disorders)*.

Conditions that will interfere in providing adequate nursing care to clients*

All applicants must undergo physical examination by the school physician every year.